CHAMBER OF COMMERCE REPORTS IMMEDIATE OILING OF NILES STREETS

Property Owners Will Be Asked To Co-Operate With County

At the regular Tuesday luncheon meeting of the Niles Chamber of Commerce held at the Florence Restaurant, and presided over by Harry Braun president, it was announced that the streets of Niles would be oiled and the work would be started immediately. Mr. Thomas, of the county surveyor's office reported that the county would oil a strip twenty-four feet wide, and he suggested that the property owners be interviewed, to find out whether or not they would be willing to pay the cost of oiling the streets to the curb, which is a matter of approximately twelve feet. A committee was formed to interview the property owners, and the members are: E. A. Ellsworth, chairman; R. A. Blacow, George Bonde and Fred Nelson.

George Donovan introduced Weller Kirtner, of Warm Springs who spoke against the proposed closing of Mission Peak to picnic parties, a petition of which is now in the hands of supervisors. On a motion made by J. C. Shinn, it was voted that the Niles Chamber of Commerce should go on record as being opposed to this plan of closing Mission Peak road, and that the board of supervisors should be so notified.

George Donovan reported that there was to be a good-will committee from Alameda county to visit the proposed Sunnyvale dig-rigible base, and he asked that a member of the Niles Chamber of Commerce be in this group. At this time Mr. Donovan introduced Lee H. Newbert, division manager of the East Bay, who gave a talk on the activities of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, and the natural gas development.

The final business of this meeting was the appointment of L. E. Smith as membership chairman for the coming week, after which the meeting was adjourned.

At the luncheon 26 members and two guests were present.

R. BENDEL'S ENJOY AN EVENING OF WINTER SPORT

Mr. and Mrs. R. Bendel were visitors at the Oakland skating rink recently, where they participated in the popular sport and watched the exhibition skaters perform. Mr. Bendel especially enjoyed the evening's sport for as a boy at school in Switzerland, he was a skillful performer. He found after a short time on the ice that he was still able to perform, though sadly out of practice. Ice skating is fast becoming one of the most favored sports, and it is valuable for the exercise it affords, as well as amusement. In order to excel at this sport one needs fine balance, and for the novice the single blade that supports the foot often proves to be very tricky.

Commissioners Appointed For Veterans' Memorial Building

At a meeting in Oakland Tuesday the board of supervisors appointed the commissioners for the veterans' memorial building, in Niles. Those appointed were: E. Dixon Bristow, Niles; D. V. Carrithers, Mission San Jose; Frank X. Veit, Newark; J. E. Dutra, Newark; and Fred Peterson, of Oakland, supervisor of all county building.

These appointments were ratified and accepted by the Washington Township American Legion Post No. 195, at a meeting in Niles, January 14.

Supervisor Ralph Richmond made the appointments and he has been giving the members of the Washington Township post wonderful co-operation.

The Memorial building is practically completed. The furniture will not be purchased until competing firms have had an opportunity to place their bids. It is expected that the furniture will cost over $2,000, and as usual in a case of this kind, bids will be called for.

Some time in early spring, approximately May 1, the grand opening of this building will be held. This will be an important event, for ex-service men throughout the township have made this building which a short time ago was only a possibility, a beautiful history making reality.

A. Franchi, former partner of A. Salvadorini in the Florence Restaurant, has recently purchased Mr. Salvadorini's interest in the business, and will continue to serve the public as before. There will be no changes made in the manner of service, and the policies of the establishment will remain the same.

Quick Response of Niles Firemen Save Adjoining Residences

The home of Mrs. Victoria Bellini was partly destroyed Wednesday evening by a fire that originated in a garage. Adjoining residences were threatened and the Frank Pemental home was scorched on one side. The Niles fire department responded promptly to the call, and with its efficient work soon put out the blaze.

It was feared that the whole row of houses on Vallejo street would be destroyed, and the close proximity of the Associated Oil Company storage tanks made it more dangerous. However the blaze was smothered by the streams of chemicals from the fire trucks.

The fire started by a short circuited wire on a Ford roadster, belonging to Arnoly Bellini, employee of the Quality Market, which was in the garage. The car started to burn, and when the gasoline tank exploded the whole garage became a mass of flames, which soon ignited the adjoining house. Another truck was parked near the garage, but Mr. Bellini succeeded in moving it to a safe place.

Friends assisted in carrying the furniture from the three houses in the immediate danger zone, and the damage done to them was slight.

The Bellini home will not be fit for living purposes for some time. The interior will have to be repaired, and part of the roof rebuilt.

SOARES' CHAIN STORE WILL OPEN BRANCH HERE FEB. 8TH

The Niles branch of the Soares' food stores will be opened February 8, in the building now being vacated by the Duarte Groceries. This store will operate under the same principles as the other branches, in that it will offer prompt, courteous service, and quality products at lower prices. These chain stores are well known for the service and satisfaction they render their patrons. The advertisement of the Soares' Store opening will appear in the next issue of the Register, February 7.

When business men start new enterprises in our city it shows that Niles must be growing, and progressing, or else these men would not be encouraged. Almost every week we hear of some concern or company, that has selected Niles as fertile ground in which to start a growing business. Little by little this city is proving that it is wide-awake, ready for new ideas, and plans for betterment. We hear of resources that are practically endless, and that is something to boast about, if we care to. The main thing is to have faith in the community, in its citizens, believe that we will some day be a metropolis and unconsciously we will convince outsiders that Niles, with its industrial agricultural and transportation opportunities is really worthy of an investigation.

The Welfare Board of Southern Alameda county met Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Walter Fleirl, 1004 "C" street, Hayward. The committee from the Washington township branch of the welfare board was composed of Mrs. P. A. Ellis, chairman; Mrs. J. R. Whipple and Mrs. W. H. Ford.

This meeting was most interesting and several short speeches were given by representatives present. The work of the board and plans for helping the needy, were discussed.

Plans of Western Clay Products Co. Told By H. Beegle

Ceramic Clay Supply Said To Be Practically Inexhaustible

As has already been announced by the Niles Chamber of Commerce, within the next ninety days, the Western Clay Products $5,000,000 Company, successor to the California Pottery Company will move into its new $500,000 plant now being completed in Niles canyon, hardly a mile from this city.

The chamber states: "The new company has taken over the entire properties of the California Pottery Company, one of the oldest clay products concerns on the coast. Announcement of the erection of the new plant marks the expansion of one of Oakland's oldest industries and indicates that the clay products market in northern California holds a promising outlook.

"H. R. Beegle of New Galilee, Pa., will be in charge of the Niles plant.

"Before planning the new structure and equipment, which will be the centralized manufacturing plant for the company, an investigation was made to ascertain the potentialities in this territory to merit such a marked expansion. The survey showed, according to Beegle, that within the next few years in the bay region, approximately $20,000,000 will be expended in sanitary sewer development alone.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

By NORMAN H. PARKS, Publisher Register

IS HE ABOVE THE LAW?

FRIEND W. RICHARDSON should stand trial. A charge of covering-up a crime and obstructing justice, should be preferred by the proper authorities. The law is plain. There is nothing technical about his admitted offense: it is unlawful for a person to fail or refuse to bare facts known about a crime, especially the capital crime of murder.

An ex-governor should not be above the law. From his own lips Richardson confesses that he suppressed evidence that could have brought to trial the murderer of Taylor, the screen director of Hollywood. He used his great powers as governor to remove from a penal institution the only witness that could convict the guilty, according to his own story. The witness took his cue, evidently from high sources, and fled as soon as rails and steamship could carry him, well out of the jurisdiction of California authorities, and succeeded in hiding so well that no one knew his whereabouts for years after his flight.

The Township Register calls upon the attorney general of this state to do his duty. His duty is plain. Richardson should be punished like a common malefactor. His high position should not protect him from prosecution of laws made for everyone. He is guiltier than a man of low station, because more familiar with the statutes of this state. He was clothed with a great trust. He swore to uphold the law, and he brought the law into contempt.

Human life is sacred. To take a life is a capital crime—the greatest of all crimes. Taylor's life was snuffed out under conditions that cast suspicion over prominent men and women. Richardson, in an interview, says he knows the murderer or murderers by name, knows all about them, has known about them for years. Your duty, Attorney General is plain. The people of California look for you to act, not play politics: There is a way to make a witness talk. Then make Richardson talk facts shorn of all qualifying phrases. An attempt should be made by your department, Mr. Attorney General, to convict the ex-governor of covering up a crime—a major crime. No leniency should be shown him because of a high place he once may have enjoyed in California.

Have you the courage to act?
California is waiting to see.

CUT OUT THE FINES

WHEN THE COURTS cut out the fines and apply jail sentences to prohibition law violators, there will be some hope of bringing the illicit traffic under control. Under the present method, it has devolved into nothing more than the license system, with judicial option, in the place of local option. Judicial option—because it is optional with the judge what the fine will be. We suppose in some cities a system is worked out. A violator is "pinched" every so often—and assessed a certain amount spread evenly over the twelve-month period.

But as a general run, it is a hit and miss affair—dependent largely upon the frame of mind that the judge may be in when the culprit appears for sentence.

A trip back to the old country for aliens, and straight jail sentences for citizens who violate the constitution, would clean up the situation in a jiffy. But there "ain't no such animal." The patron of the bootlegger must and will have his wants supplied.

PLEASANTON SCOUT TROOP ORGANIZED

Judge Wm. T. Davis Is Named Scoutmaster; Plans Progressing

Once again a troop of Boy Scouts will be organized in Pleasanton. Announcement of plans to re-organize scouting here was officially made last week by the scoutmaster and the executive committee, and the proposition was placed before the boys of scout age in the Pleasanton Grammar School by Principal V. Bernard Johnson when school reopened this week.

Under the circumstances it is believed that more than one troop will be organized as the executive committee has been approached by the parents of numerous boys seeking such a re-organization of the movement.

Judge Wm. T. Davis has been named scoutmaster. The executive committee is composed of T. H. Silver, C. Latham, Thomas Orloff, Sam Glassey and Ernest W. Schween. Judge Davis is well acquainted with scouting, having been interested in the work here during the war times. Inasmuch as there are still many members of the former scout troops living in Pleasanton, the boys will be under capable leadership.

Earl Shoemith, former principal of the grammar school, was the last scoutmaster having a troop under his direction in this city. During the time Mr. Shoemith was in charge the troops did not have regular quarters of their own.

It is planned now to furnish the upper floor of the new fire house for scout headquarters. While this is not definitely worked out, it appeals to all concerned that the community could hardly find any more suitable manner of use for the second story of the fire house.

Scouting in Pleasanton will be under the supervision of the Oakland council of Boy Scouts of America. Judge Davis has attended several sessions of the council in Oakland recently, and is now prepared to go ahead with the work.

Within the next week or ten days it is anticipated that the first meeting will be held, and that within a short time thereafter the first of the re-organized scout troops will make its appearance in Pleasanton.

All those interested in the work may procure further information from Judge Davis or any member of the executive committee.

JUNIOR COLLEGE FOR TOWNSHIP NOW IMPOSSIBLE

A recent appeal for a junior college in Los Angeles has revealed the fact that there can be no junior colleges anywhere because institutions of this sort face a deficit of more than $300,000 for the current school year.

It was the desire of many of Washington Township to have a junior college in this vicinity, but these recent investigations have proved that it will be impossible. Ten other localities are on the waiting list for a junior college.

ENGAGEMENT OF DOROTHY TRIPP IS ANNOUNCED

Popular Pleasanton Girl To Wed Karl G. Heine

Announcement of the engagement of Miss Dorothy Tripp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tripp of Pleasanton, to Mr. Karl G. Heine, son of Mrs. Marie Schellhorn of Oakland, was made last Saturday evening at the close of a delightful "coming of age" party given for Miss Tripp by her parents.

Miss Tripp is one of the most popular members of Pleasanton's younger social set and has been the recipient of many congratulatory messages since the announcement.

Mr. Heine is a graduate of the University of California with the class of 1928. He is now connected with the Pacific Telephone Company in its Oakland office. Miss Tripp is a former member of the class of '30 at University of California.

The announcement was made after a delightful evening spent at bridge, when Bon Bons were served the guests. Enclosed with the Bon Bons were the announcement cards. The bride-to-be's home was beautifully decorated, pink and green being the predominating color scheme, two shades of carnations furnishing the delicate hues.

Guests at the coming of age party in addition to the bride and bridegroom to-be were Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Edward Maiden, of London, England; Fred H. Mills, Vancouver, B. C.; Mrs. Marie Schellhorn, mother of Mr. Heine; William Georgil, uncle of Mr. Heine, Miss Ruth Bacigalupo and Mrs. L. Critchley, all of Oakland, Clayton Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. David Horn, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ploss, Mr. and Mrs. Flynn, Miss Stella Higbee and Wm. B. Schechl, all of Berkeley; R. Swanson of Los Gatos; and Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Hamer and son Harry; and the Misses Leeta Haas and Olive Tripp, all of Pleasanton.

The date for the wedding has not been set, but tentative plans are being made for an early spring nuptials.

PHANTOM RADIO BROADCAST OVER NEWARK PHONES

Mrs. Mattie E. Bole, manager of the telephone office at Newark, has been having considerable trouble with the telephone system, due to phantom radio reception. When one conversed over the telephone one could hear music being played very softly, and, finally a telephone expert was called to try and put an end to the musical annoyance. After hours of fruitless effort he concluded that the subscribers were either "hearing things" or else Mars was broadcasting. After the expert had left it was discovered that the phantom no longer broadcasted over the telephone wires. Perhaps it has chosen a field where there are no telephone experts, or else has gone out of business entirely.

MOBILIZATION OF BOY SCOUTS IS EXPECTED SOON

The mobilization of all boy scout troops is expected to be called at any time, was reported today. The scouts will be notified that they are to gather at some given point in the city of Oakland, and they will be allowed two hours to reach this point. The scouts are to furnish or obtain their own means of transportation without aid. This assembly is held each year, and it serves to test the ability of the scouts. Very often if some unforeseen crisis arises the scouts are called out to render assistance. In the past during various fires and floods, the Boy Scouts of America have rendered heroic and skillful work and have been acclaimed for their courage and good judgment.

These qualities are often the result of scout training, for it teaches kindness, forbearance, unselfishness, the meaning of duty, the beauty and contentment of work, and above all it teaches the young boys to live a clean life. Outdoor sports of all kinds are introduced, and the boys learn what true sportsmanship means in competition.

All over the United States, and in England, the scouts are encouraged, for the training received at this time has a extensive influence on their after lives.

FORMER PLEASANTON MAN BRUTALLY SLAIN BY THUG LAST FRIDAY

Ex-Cook at Ratti's Cafe Victim of Deadly Attack

MURDERER ESCAPES

Meager Clues To Slayer's Identity Given By Woman

IDENTITY OF the assailant of Nick Tralla and Mrs. Ella May Hibbs is as far from being known today as it was a week ago last night when the details of the dastardly crime were sobbed brokenly from the lips of the woman who escaped the fate of Tralla by feigning death as the slugs bent over her, says The Pleasanton Times, last week, and continues:

The murder and assault occurred either late last Thursday or early Friday morning, according to information gathered by deputy sheriffs working on the case. The body of Tralla was found in about eight inches of water in swamp lands between Hayward and Alvarado early Friday.

News of the tragedy was flashed to police by Joseph Nesbitt, a rancher living south of Hayward, into whose home Mrs. Hibbs stumbled at 5 o'clock in the morning. Mrs. Hibbs was hysterical, disheveled and blood was streaming from numerous gashes in her head, which had been inflicted by the slugs.

Upon the first interview with police, Mrs. Hibbs, from her cot in Highland hospital, told a rambling tale of a wild ride through the fog, with a burley Negro as an unwanted passenger, and lastly of the vicious assault on Tralla, which resulted in his death. The slugs then turned his attentions to Mrs. Hibbs and beat her into semi-consciousness. Realizing her life depended on appearing dead, Mrs. Hibbs related how she feigned death until the thug believed she had expired.

That in brief was the meager details deputy sheriffs had to go on. Later she told a more complete story, which may aid police in rounding up the criminal.

In a later statement she told of the alleged Negro who was picked up by the couple as they drove toward Livermore from here. He made a plea that his car was stuck and that he would like a ride into Livermore.

In reconstructing the crime and movements of the trio, deputy sheriffs have learned, among other things:

Tralla and Mrs. Hibbs left Livermore early Thursday and came to Pleasanton where they stopped at Ratti's Restaurant. Tralla and John Ratti conferred on business for a time, and as it was getting late, Tralla and Mrs. Hibbs departed presumably for Livermore. The couple was not seen again until after the crime, so far as police have been able to learn.

Friday night the blood stained sedan driven by Tralla was found deserted in an Oakland street. From the appearance of the automobile, police doubt the theory that the killing was committed in the car, and therefore doubt that the crime was perpetrated anywhere near the location in which the body was found, or where Mrs. Hibbs finally found aid.

It is believed that in the attack Mrs. Hibbs lost consciousness and did not regain her senses until she was being thrown from the machine on the lonely road near Hayward.

Later Friday interest in the crime again returned to Pleasanton when Constable Albert Vervais discovered a ditched automobile belonging to a Stockton dentist, near the spot where Mrs. Hibbs stated the alleged Negro was picked up. According to

LOCAL GUILD TO SEND DELEGATES TO CONVENTION

Owing to the Diocesan convention of 1930, a great many of the Guild ladies will be away, and it has been decided not to hold another meeting of this body until February 19.

The delegates are Mrs. F. O. Bunting, Mrs. Boerner, Mrs. E. Chadbourne, Mrs. H. Chadbourne and Mrs. H. Hunt. Alternates have also been chosen.

The convention opens on Monday afternoon, with a reception to Bishop and Mrs. Parsons. A pageant and dinner will also mark the opening day. The affair will last for three days.

word from Stockton the stolen car had been used by burglars in an attempted get-away. One of the robbers was captured and described his companion as being an extremely dark white man. This led police to believe that Mrs. Hibbs may have been mistaken in describing their assailant as a Negro.

Nevertheless all suspicious Negroes are being taken into custody for questioning. One such colored man was picked up in Pleasanton only to be released after a short questioning.

The murder was declared by doctors to have been one of the most brutal ever committed in this section. They found more than fifteen deep cuts on Tralla's head, any one of which would have been sufficient to have caused death.

Joseph Lewis Is Called By Death At Pleasanton

Pioneer Business Man Laid To Final Rest Monday Morning

Joseph Lewis, pioneer Pleasanton business man, was laid to his final rest Monday morning in St. Augustine cemetery, Pleasanton, after funeral services were conducted at St. Augustine church by Rev. Father Timothy Galvin, of that city. The rites were said at 10:00 o'clock after a short prayer service in the late home.

Mr. Lewis was born in the Azores, and came to this country with his parents when he was yet a boy. He was eighty-two years, ten months and four days of age at the time of his passing Saturday, January 18, 1930. Mr. Lewis passed away after a lingering illness of complication of diseases and infirmities of advanced age.

For many years Mr. Lewis engaged in business in Pleasanton both by himself and with Frank Nevis. He was widely known throughout Alameda county and especially in social circles of this section.

Surviving are his widow Mrs. Caroline Lewis, two daughters, Mrs. F. C. Nevis, and Mrs. J. H.

BOY SCOUTS SEARCH NILES CANYON FOR CLUES OF MURDER

Evidence Of Tralla Death Supposedly Found Saturday

Nine scouts from the Niles troop accompanied Frank Wilson, deputy sheriff from Oakland, to the supposed scene of the killing of Nick Tralla, former Pleasanton resident, in Niles Canyon, Saturday, on a search for evidence. The belief tends to point out that Tralla was not killed in the swamp lands between Hayward and Alvarado, where the body was found. A thorough search was made in the canyon, and it is alleged that two purses, a shoe, and bundle of woman's clothing was found by deputy Frank Wilson. A check book was reported found in one of the purses but the name of the owner was not revealed.

Tralla was murdered either late Thursday night, January 16, or Friday morning, January 17 according to information gathered by deputy sheriffs investigating the case. Mrs. Ella May Hibbs, who was with Tralla, related the story of the wild ride when interviewed for the first time at Highland hospital, where she is recovering from the brutal beating received at the hands of the alleged Negro attacker. Mrs. Hibbs told how she saved her life by feigning death until the man thought she was dead.

At a later date Mrs. Hibbs told a more coherent story, which may aid officials in capturing the murderer.

In addition to the Niles boy scouts, there were several members of the Pleasanton troop that accompanied Deputy Frank Wilson on the search for evidence. Following are the names of the Niles scouts who were present: Arnold Abbott, Jack Townsend, Vernon Ellsworth, Lawrence Pine, Lawrence Bunting, Harry Cesar, Frank Rose, Clarence Rose, and John Habenicht.

AUTOS CARRIED OVER SIERRAS AS TRAIN 'BAGGAGE'

Balking the snow man's effort to make the Tahoe summit impassable for motorists this winter, the automobile baggage car service of the Southern Pacific Company is again in full operation between Sacramento and Reno, it was announced this week.

Inaugurated as an experiment last winter, the so-called "snow ferry" won instant popularity. Hundreds of automobiles were transported over the mountains summit, resulting in numerous requests for the resumption of the service this winter.

The motorist using the automobile baggage car service has only to drive his machine aboard either at Reno or Sacramento to have it carried quickly and safely through the snow country. Automobiles are driven into the end-door baggage cars on inclined steel runways.

TOWNSHIP PLANS
PLANTING TREES
ALONG HIGHWAYCivic Organizations Hope to Transform Road Into Thing of Beauty

Organizations throughout Washington township are taking an active interest in the proposal to make the state highway between Niles and Hayward an avenue of beautiful trees and a joint meeting of the clubs of Hayward and this section is expected to be held in the near future to map plans for the planting.

George C. Roeding, president of the California Nursery Company, as reported in last week's Township Register, states that he has succeeded in interesting the state highway department in making a park of the strip of land between the old and new highway in front of the Belvoir hotel. It is proposed to plant this strip with trees and shrubs from the state nursery and others to be donated by organizations throughout Washington township so that it would serve as a model in highway beautification and at the same time provide an attractive entrance to Niles.

The latest proposal in connection with planting the roadside is to get sixteen organizations from Eden and Washington townships to agree to take over a half-mile of highway to plant and maintain as their individual projects, the trees to be procured from the state nursery.

At the last meeting of the Country Club of Washington township a committee was appointed to co-operate with the other organizations in the project. The proposal was approved by the Garden Club at a meeting held last Friday at the home of its president, Mrs. Will D. Patterson, in Newark. Frank Dusterberry, president of the Centerville chamber of commerce, yesterday pledged the support of his organization. The matter is to be brought to the attention of other chambers of commerce, American Legion and a number of lodges within the next few weeks, according to Harvey Braun, president of the local chamber of commerce.

HARD FOUGHT GAME IS DROPPED BY Y. M. I.

Large Crowd Witnesses Basketball at Contest at Pleasanton

Pleasanton's Young Men's Institute's basketball team lost a hard fought game Saturday night to the highly touted Oakland Y. M. I. No. 6, squad by a score of 47 to 22. His defeat was a moral victory, as the No. 6 team is being touted as the state champions.

In holding the superior team to so small a score, and tallying a large total, the local basketballers showed that they will be hard to beat when meeting opponents in their own class.

In the preliminaries Pleasanton's Y. M. I. second team dropped a close contest to the Livermore Tigers, 29 to 23. Both games were hard fought and many thrills were given the spectators. After the game a dance was held for the spectators, who numbered several hundred.

The line-up for the big game: Dias, F. LaFranchie, F. Anselmo, F. Coughland, F. J. Anselmo, F. Beasy, F. Nerton, C. LaFranchie, C. Francisco, G. Sulrek, G. Rhodes, G. Horman, G.

Mrs. A. Juhl has returned from a month's tour through Houston, Texas; Little Rock, and Hot Springs, Arkansas; Yuma, Arizona and Los Angeles. She was accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Clarabelle Martin, and the trip was made by train.

Mrs. Juhl and Mrs. Martin visited friends and saw many scenic beauties while on this tour. They reported that much snow was encountered, and that the thermometer was very often below zero in some climates.

BANQUET GIVEN FOR PEERLESS STAGE DRIVERS

A banquet was given at the Florence restaurant, Niles, on Tuesday evening, January 28, for all drivers employed by the Peerless Stage System. Harry Gato, manager of the system, was master of ceremonies.

Several short speeches were made, and general subjects of interest were discussed. Approximately thirty-five drivers were present, others who were on duty were unable to attend.

When Our Boys Beat 'Em 6 to 5-

After the game—when the home team has put up a terrific battle, and the winning point has been scored—even the folks who failed to see it done are "all set" for a hot time in the old town tonight. Baseball, Football, Basketball—it's all the same. When our boys trim the other bunch, we're proud of 'em, and we don't care who knows it!

No person in this community is more interested in fostering good, clean sports than the publishers of this paper. We want to do our bit every time there's a chance to boost a game or a celebration that merits popular support.

In addition to our newspaper columns, one of the best ways we can help is in the printing of posters and announcements. This is part of our business, and we can produce the right kind of advertising for any such occasion. Don't depend on "word of mouth" publicity or "home-made" posters for the success of your picnic or athletic event. Every contestant needs the encouragement of a good crowd—and you need ample gate receipts.

Get our ideas about publicity, and our prices for posters that will put your affair over with a bang.

Niles Grammar School Stages Paper Drive To Aid Needy

The Niles Grammar school is featuring a paper drive this week. Two teams have been formed, one of the upper grades, and one of the lower. The proceeds of this drive will be added to the fund for the feeding of undernourished children.

The boys and girls are going at this drive in a whole-hearted manner, and they are indeed deeply interested. Small boys and girls can be seen carrying bundles of papers, and occasionally, small express-wagons piled full are seen traveling in the general direction of the school. The popular question of the day seems to be, "please, have you got any old papers?"

E. Dixon Bristow, principal of the school, states that these children are so sincere in their endeavors, and they are working so diligently, that they deserve some real co-operation. If you have old papers stored away in the basement, or stacked in some hidden corner of the old woodshed why not let the children know about it? They will be delighted to call for them and do all the transporting. All they ask is the chance to do it. Your assistance in this work will be appreciated to the utmost, for in giving these papers you will give those little undernourished children a chance to gain health, and strength, that they need so much while getting their start in life.

new plant as nearly the entire Merced plant will be transferred to Niles and the Oakland plant at Park and Twenty-third avenues will be dismantled and removed to Niles canyon.

"This does not mean that because we are moving our plant from Oakland, where it has been a fixture for fifty-six years, that we intend relinquishing any of our Oakland business," points out Beegle. "We are going to establish in Oakland a comprehensive building material yard in which all of our products will be stocked."

"In Niles we will manufacture a complete line of clay products, including pipe, face brick, hollow, drain and floor tile, septic tanks, flue lining, fire brick, corroding pots, and art pottery."

Huge Clay Supply

"Recent investigations, according to officials of the Western Clay Products Company, have developed the fact that Alameda county has a practically inexhaustible supply of high grade ceramic clays."

"The clays of Niles canyon," says Beegle, "heretofore practically undeveloped, are as good as any clays on the Pacific coast for the manufacture of heavy clay products, such as sewer pipe, face brick and many other of the products. These Alameda county clays will be supplemented from the clay deposits owned by the company in Calaveras county."

Kilns Are Built

"Eight of the 30-foot kilns have been built at Niles, and a complete outfit of brick and tile machinery installed at an initial expenditure of $150,000. Construction work is going forward rapidly and within another three months the full plant is expected to be completed and in operation."

"Associated with Beegle in the new company, in addition to the personnel of the former California Pottery Company, are several eastern men. Robert W. Morrison, treasurer, is from New York, where he was engaged in the building material business for years, and L. R. Hansen, formerly with the Salt Lake Pressed Brick Company, has become sales manager. Beegle was formerly with the Beaver Clay Manufacturing Company of New Galilee, Pa., and was one of the organizers of the American Face Brick Association."

The contract for the expansion of the Niles canyon plant has been let to A. F. Hanson.
